Dr. Wrubel will provide a complete review of how the financial aid system works (and doesn't) and a grand plan on how to pay for college at all income levels. Dr. Wrubel will also discuss the many ways to navigate through the college funding maze. The subjects covered will include but not be limited to:

- Why everyone, at all income levels, should apply for financial aid
- How the financial aid system works
- The sources of aid
- The forms of financial aid
- How to evaluate financial aid awards
- Specific money-saving strategies for families at all income levels
- Creating a master plan to pay for college
- Q and A

Dr. Paul Wrubel is a Stanford PhD and an experienced educator, teacher, vice-principal and high school principal (Gunn High School). He has served as an elected school board president and as one of the nation's pre-eminent authorities on college funding issues, and he has advised thousands of parents from coast to coast on the full spectrum of ways to pay for college.
